

Ambassador's booklet

After a highly successful 2013 edition, Belgrade Business International Case Competition is now ready to take on new challenges.

This year's BBICC will take place during the spring of 2014, from 1st – 6th of April 2014. We will be honored to host 12 teams from all around the world.

The success of the BBICC 2014 relies on the dedication and hard-work of the Organizing Committee and 12 people who are going to be the ambassadors of our country, University, and the entire competition.

Responsibilities.

As an ambassador, you will be in charge of your team from the minute they set foot in Belgrade. You will have the responsibility to pick up your team at the hotel in the morning and insure that they safely come back to the hotel at the end of the day. This includes sightseeing tours, night outs and other events prepared by the BBICC Event team.

You will be the face of BBICC 2014. This is how important your roll will be.

Please note – All ambassadors will perform logistical tasks during BBICC week.

Application and selection process.

Questions should be answered in English.

Please fulfill the answers to all questions.

The application should be sent by the 29th of December 2013. 23:59.

After the application, candidates will take part in an interview.

The goal of the interviews is to get to know the person better and measure the abilities and attitude of the person based on the application form and the needed profiles.

Final results of the selection will be announced afterwards.
